1. Simon Matijasevic, Marcos Salomanovic, and Ivo Salomanovic, all Yugoslav nationals and members of the Partido Izquierda Revolucionario (PIR), are responsible for handling most of the Communist propaganda circulating in the Potosi area. They receive this literature from Montevideo and Mexico, and distribute it among the soldiers and miners of the area.
2. These individuals are the leaders of a strong Communist organization among the Slav colony in Potosi, and they conduct Communist meetings at the Hotel Londres in that town.
